A revolution broke out in Cuba on the rates receded 1-4 past week. 4th of July, which was agreed upon as a on the morning of the 4th, twenty young tlag of free Cuba over it, they remained in possession of this piace only a very short time, as their orders were to retire as soon dence. When attacked by superior forces they retired in good order, and joined the main body of the patriot forces, consisting of 700 Cubans and 200 Americans. A similar movement was to take place at three other large cities, as soon as they would hear that the blow has been struck at Puerto Principi. We cannot now from prudential motives mention those places. We have not the slightest doubt that they are now in arms in the two places mentioned. ARRIVAL OF THE AMERICA.
